Class Information

Title of Class	Internet Marketers & Scammers: What They Know About You
Class Description in 100 words or less. Materials/supplies fee: If needed, please include the amount per student. Required Text: If there is a class text required, please include the title, author, and ISBN. ____ Please use description currently on file.	We read stories in the news about websites getting hacked and huge amounts of consumer data being stolen; "phishing" messages look like they're from your bank; maybe your personal hard drive crashed and you lost all your data. This course will review the threats to your online privacy and security. Learn a set of practical, inexpensive tips so you can lock down your personal information, protect yourself from scammers, and minimize your exposure to digital catastrophes. Don't feel like you're wandering lost and confused in the digital world - regard this course as the "Driver's Ed" class you never got a chance to take.

Class Preferences

Note: Our classrooms are equipped with an iMac computer that can be used under Microsoft Windows 7 or Mac OS X. The computers are equipped with Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Internet (IE/Firefox), Adobe Acrobat, mounted audio speakers, overhead projection, wireless microphones, PowerPoint advancers, whiteboards, flipcharts, and markers. If you need something other than a traditional classroom, please describe your needs. If you'll be using a Mac laptop and it doesn't have an HDMI video port, you must bring your own adapter.

Students can provide feedback after classes. Would you like to receive the compiled feedback on your class?: Yes No
