OLLI@UGA Inclement Weather Policy

In concert with the University of Georgia, OLLI@UGA will follow the inclement weather policy established by the university.

- If UGA closes, all OLLI@UGA classes and activities are cancelled
- If UGA delays opening or closes early, OLLI@UGA will do the same
- OLLI@UGA reserves the right to cancel classes and events even if the university chooses to remain open. The safety and care of our members and staff will guide us to make the best decision possible.

Please monitor your email, the UGA website, the OLLI@UGA website, and local television and radio stations for the latest information.
