Thursday, August 16, 2018, 3:00 pm
UGA Special Collections Libraries (300 S. Hull St.) Room 271

_A Gardener's Diary: Amazing Graces_

Two women - one black, one white and both named Grace, have been friends for 30 years. Because of their mutual love of flowers, they have also developed a lasting friendship that transcends race in rural Buford, Ga.

Thursday, September 20, 2018, 3:00 pm
UGA Special Collections Libraries (300 S. Hull St.) Room 271

_Reel Injun: On the Trail of the Hollywood Indian_

Thursday, October 18, 2018, 3:00 pm
UGA Special Collections Libraries (300 S. Hull St.) Room 271

_Waltz with Bashir_

2008 film that tells the story of writer-producer Ari Folman's attempts to recover his memories of being a soldier in the 1982 war between Israel and Lebanon. The film, an animated documentary, depicts the emotional and spiritual truths Folman uncovers as he speaks with friends and others who served as soldiers in that war. Eventually his journey leads him to memories of his role in a massacre.

Thursday, November 15, 2018, 3:00 pm
UGA Special Collections Libraries (300 S. Hull St.) Room 271

_New Life Blossoms in an Old Village_

Seven years in the life of a young man who moved to the countryside, and joined a community that is trying to adapt to the consequences of Japan's aging, shrinking population.

Thursday, December 13, 2018, 3:00 pm
UGA Special Collections Libraries (300 S. Hull St.) Room 271

_The Downtown Messiah_

Handel's work is reinterpreted according to the musical spirit that encompasses Greenwich village. 'The Downtown Messiah' was first performed in 1997 at New York City's legendary, downtown club The Bottom Line.